

Juan Seguin

The Life of a Revolutionary and Politician

October 27, 1806	1825	1828 – 1834	October – December 1835	February 23, 1836	Late February 1836	Early March 1836	March – April 1836	April 21, 1836	1837	1837 – 1840	1839	1841	1842 – 1848	1848	1852 – 1880's	1883	August 27, 1890	September 1974	July 4, 1976	October 2000
Juan Seguin born in Texas to Erasmo and Maria Flores Seguin, Spanish descendants from the Canary Islands who helped settle Texas.	Married Maria Gertrudus Flores de Abrego south of Seguin	Served as Alcalde and various other elected positions in San Antonio.	Seguin led over 160 rancheros in the Siege of Bexar	Joins William B. Travis as a Defender at the Alamo.	Seguin ordered out of the Alamo to recruit reinforcements.	Seguin returns to San Antonio to find the Texians defeated at the Alamo	His company served as rear guard for the Runaway Scrape	Led Company A Cavalry unit at the Battle of San Jacinto	Oversees the burying of the remains from the Alamo	Serves as a Texas Senator	Walnut Springs citizens re-name the community "Seguin" in his honor	Served as Mayor of San Antonio	After being falsely blamed for the Mexican siege of San Antonio, Seguin fled to Mexico where he was forced to enlist in Mexican Army	Granted permission to return to Texas	Seguin continued to serve in a variety of elected offices	Returns to Mexico to live near his son Santiago	Seguin dies in Nuevo, Laredo, Mexico	Seguin's remains are brought to Seguin	Seguin's remains are reinterred as part of the nation's Bicentennial celebration	The Juan Seguin statute is erected in Central Park
Juan Seguin nació en Texas de Erasmo y Maria Flores Seguin, descendientes de españoles de las Islas Canarias que ayudaron a establecerse en Texas.	Casado con Maria Gertrudus Flores de Abrego al sur de Seguin	Se desempeñó como Alcalde y varios otros cargos electos en San Antonio.	Seguin lideró a más de 160 rancheros en el Asedio de Bexar	Se une a William B. Travis como defensor en el Álamo.	Seguin ordenó salir del Álamo para reclutar refuerzos.	Seguin regresa a San Antonio para encontrar a los texanos derrotados en el Alamo	Su compañía sirvió como retaguardia del Runaway Scrape	Lideró la unidad de Caballería de la Compañía A en la Batalla de San Jacinto	Supervisa el entierro de los restos del Alamo	Sirve como senador de Texas	Los ciudadanos de Walnut Springs cambian el nombre de la comunidad a "Seguin" en su honor	Se desempeñó como alcalde de San Antonio	Después de ser culpado falsamente por el asedio mexicano de San Antonio, Seguin huyó a México donde se vio obligado a alistarse en el ejército mexicano	Permiso concedido para regresar a Texas	Seguin continuó sirviendo en una variedad de cargos electos	Regresa a México para vivir cerca de su hijo Santiago	Seguin muere en Nuevo, Laredo, México	Los restos de Seguin se llevan a Seguin	Los restos de Seguin se vuelven a enterrar como parte de la celebración del Bicentenario de la nación	Se erige el estatuto de Juan Seguin en Central Park

JUAN NEPOMUCENO SEGUIN

OCT. 27, 1806 ☆ AUG. 28, 1890

"TEXAS PATRIOT AND STATESMAN FOR WHOM THE CITY OF SEGUIN WAS NAMED."

☆ ——— ☆

SON OF ERASMO AND MARIA SEGUIN, SPANISH DESCENDANTS FROM THE CANARY ISLANDS WHO HELPED SETTLE TEXAS ☆ YOUNG JUAN ASSEMBLED MEXICAN-TEXAN TROOPS AND FOUGHT IN THE 1835 'SIEGE OF BEXAR' ☆ PROVIDED HORSES AND AID FOR TROOPS OF COL. WILLIAM B. TRAVIS, FURTHER AIDING AS COURIER DURING SIEGE OF THE ALAMO ☆ DEFENDED FLEEING SETTLERS IN 'RUNAWAY SCRAPE' AFTER THE FALL OF THE ALAMO ☆ DIRECTED BURIAL OF THE REMAINS OF ALL COMBATANTS OF THE ALAMO, MAY 1836 ☆ COMMANDED COMPANY "A" (CAVALRY,) 2ND REGIMENT DURING SAN JACINTO VICTORY ☆ COMMANDED PURSUIT OF MEXICAN ARMY REMNANTS FLOWING SAN JACINTO BATTLE ☆ WALNUT SPRINGS CITIZENS VOTED TO RENAME THIS COMMUNITY "SEGUIN" IN HIS HONOR ON FEB. 25, 1838 ☆ SERVED AS MAYOR OF SAN ANTONIO, 1841-48 ☆ 3-TERM SENATOR, REPUBLIC OF TEXAS, 1837-40, SUPPORTED BI-LINGUAL PUBLISHING OF TEXTBOOKS, HELPED SELECT SITE FOR STATE CAPITOL ☆ DIED 1890, NUEVO, LAREDO, MEXICO ☆

REMAINS RETURNED TO SEGUIN,
SEPTEMBER, 1974 ☆ ,
REINTERRED WITH SPECIAL HONORS
ON JULY 4, 1976
BY THE CITY OF SEGUIN AND SEGUIN BICENTENNIAL COMMISSION.